Mr. Manning,

You are the problem not the answer. Your extremist views only make things worse. I find it VERY difficult to believe you were a "law enforcement officer." Unfortunately, the previous administration allowed millions of illegals in this country and Real Americans understand the difficult task of removing these illegals. ICE and DHS are not 100% perfect and neither is the OSP, City Police, Sheriff's Department or the security guard at the mall. The majority of Real Americans would rather a few feathers get ruffled than for illegal alien murderers and convicts to be able to terrorize our communities. In fact, Real Americans simply want immigrants to follow immigration laws PERIOD. If they did follow the law, ICE would not be necessary. THINK ABOUT THAT! The good people can come into America the legal way. The 'peaceful protests' you note is so laughable it's not worth talking about. When you lie (and you are a clearly a blatant liar) about the way things are, it crushes your credibility instantly, but you do a good job of GAS Lighting the uninformed crowd. Maybe try a different tactic to get your extremist agenda wesseled past the Real American people, because you certainly aren't doing a very good job of it. Here is my suggestion: Start with the truth and End with the truth.
