Please don't allow this! Once you ruin our beautiful countryside by building on it you can't take it back! There are so many vacant buildings throughout the three counties. Work on attracting people to those first. We don't want to c

Keep expanding and end up looking like Denver which ruined the state. It makes Oregon look very greedy. It looks like our government cares more about looking like California rather than preserving this beautiful state that we call home. We are so extremely blessed to have all the amazing wildlife and land to preserve this beautiful place. These are the reasons that we as Oregonians choose to live here. Please don't do this! It's not necessary, and so heartbreaking. I am a policy volunteer for Humane world for Animals(formerly humane society of the United States)
