This is Kicker theft. The need to allocate more school funds could be resolved by just complying with federal education requirements - eliminate DEI programs. This can be done without stealing Oregonian's kicker. The open rebellion to the Federal government is costing Oregon taxpayers as legislators try to make up that loss. We are sinking more and more into socialism and the costs of being a sanctuary state is breaking every business and taxpayer in this State..

It is your place to honor voters wishes. You are supposed to be representing the people of this state. With over 250,000 people signing the referendum, you are obviously NOT listening. Please oppose this bill.
