I am a licensed tax consulting in Happy Valley Oregon. The kicker is a bad piece of tax law. It makes no sense. When more money than expected comes in, a kicker is paid out. When less than expected comes in, the taxpayers do not pay more in. When I prepare returns for people who move into Oregon and there is a kicker, they invariably say what? That makes no sense! The kicker is not for people who don't make much money, it goes mostly to high income taxpayers. We need to curb this absurd rule. Please pass sjr201.
