We firmly oppose the proposal (SJR201) to take taxpayer's kicker money that does not belong to the State of Oregon lawmakers.

The taxpayers of Oregon are fed-up with the tyranny of the government officials that we pay to act in our best interest. We are being failed by our state and local government to make the fair and right decisions to help us taxpayers cope with the terrible financial leadership forced upon us by these incompetent and low-handed public servants. Taxpayers rank above public servants. Not the other way around. We demand our lawful money back without the threat of our legislation grabbing it away.

Perhaps we should 'legislate' the salaries back from officials that have failed to do their jobs?

Clean-up your acts or pack your bags (not with our money).
