SB1516

I am an Asian myself, and I strongly support the bill. Recent years, I have experienced targeted burglary and robbery in different ways by people, and even though I didn't lose too many things, and being able to defend myself, I feel that this is very important because nowadays worrying about being burglarized or robbed is not fun at all. I am even afraid to go shopping all the time, and always worried about break-ins is hard on my body as I can't get any sleep at night.
